Message from the Mayor

It is my pleasure to present Walgett Shire Council's Disability Inclusion Action Plan 2016-2020. Our Council embraces the inclusion of people with a disability in all aspects of community life. We are committed to creating a more inclusive and welcoming community for people with disabilities.

The Disability Inclusion Action Plan demonstrates our commitment to improve the quality of our services, facilities, accessibility issues, systems and programs over a four year period. The Plan was developed through extensive consultation processes and engagement by our teams with the community and outlines the actions we will take to provide more accessible and inclusive services.

We look forward to hearing about the positive impact the Plan has for people with a disability in our Shire.

Mayor, Councillor Ian Woodcock

Message from the General Manager

This Disability Action Plan presents Council's commitment to people with disabilities for improving access and inclusion over the next four years.

Planning for disability inclusion is about supporting the basic right of choice for people with disability in our community. People with disability have the same right to choose how to live, work and enjoy community life as other people.

Council's aim is to ensure that our services, community based programs, facilities and processes are inclusive. The Plan aims to improve conditions for people with a disability who live, work and visit our Shire.

I look forward to working with staff and our community to put the plan into action over the coming years and encourage people to work together as inclusion and accessibility is everyone's business.

General Manager, Don Ramsland

"Council acknowledges the traditional custodians and first people of our lands the Gamilaroi and Yuwaalaraay people. We pay our respect to Elders both past, present and future and acknowledge their spiritual connection to the lands and waterways within the Walgett Shire."

Australian Unity CEO Mr Cameron Holland and Area Manager Mrs Zuzana Sisa along with Local Disability Project Worker Miss Joanne Osbourne at a recent event of service providers at Lightning Ridge in which Council conducted in place survey and consultations regarding the development of the Disability Inclusion Action Plan

1. Background

In 2014 the NSW Disability Inclusion Act 2014 was passed. This Act requires Council to develop a Disability Inclusion Action Plan to help remove barriers and enable people with a disability to participate fully in their communities.

For the first time all levels of Government across Australia have committed to a unified National approach to improving the lives of people with disability their families and carers through the development of the National Disability Strategy. In this Strategy the State and Federal Governments have committed to an approach where the individual is the centre of focus and not their disability.

Council's vision is for an inclusive, respectful and diverse community where all residents and visitors enjoy a safe and friendly environment.

Council's Disability Inclusion Action Plan will aim to provide better access to Council information, services and facilities ensuring people with disabilities can fully participate in their community.

The Walgett Shire Disability Inclusion Action Plan was developed through a series of community consultations and a range of other communication strategies, offered to the community to have their say in the planning stages and eventual adoption of this Plan.

The formation of three community based Access and Inclusion sub- groups in our three larger communities of Walgett, Lightning Ridge and Collarenebri allowed key points/ opportunities for people to discuss, refer and pass on their thoughts in relation to the consultation processes.

The formation of a Council staff working group with a two-fold responsibility representing peoples with disabilities and also acting as a reference group for potential issues around access and inclusion with Council properties, facilities, events and programs aided the consultation process to no end.

A review of relevant literature, Council documents / policies took place and a staff survey was conducted across the challenging demographic that is Walgett Shire.

"Members of the Disability Inclusion and Access Committee"

Due to the difficulty in consulting with many community members because of the vastness of the Shire and timeframes Council developed an on-line survey tool and promoted this across the Shire seeking responses from a series of questions developed in reference to areas of access and inclusion and aligning with International, State and Local level guidelines and principals of accessibility and inclusion.

Council values well-placed relationships with key organisations established over many years working and collaborating with services and agencies across the Shire, and with this in mind Council targeted persons within the sector, working with, supporting or assisting peoples with disabilities and their carers to form the catalyst of the external reference groups in each community.

Other forms of consultation were extensive and rewarding with an impressive Number of surveys completed and collated.

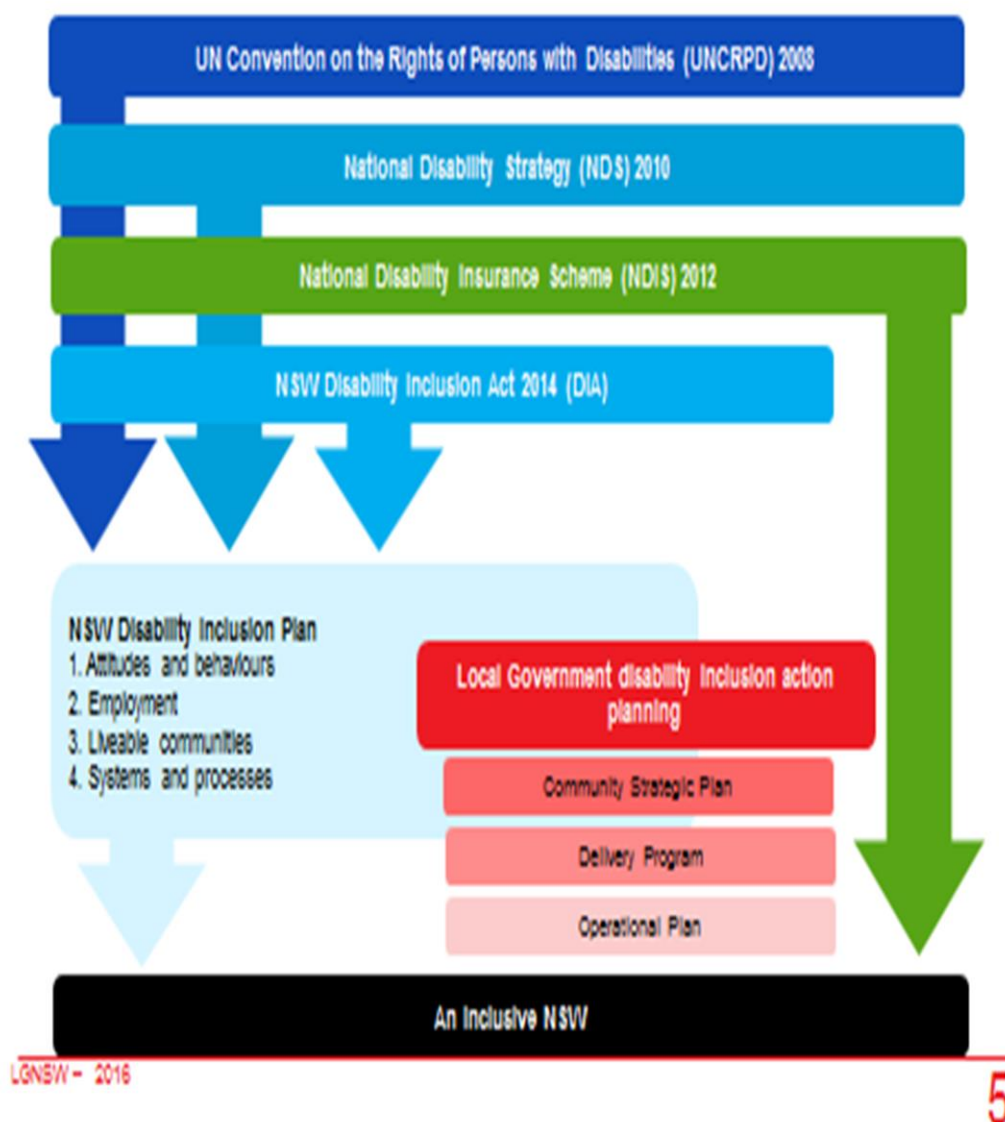

The opportunities provided by this consultation and plan development was met with enthusiasm and goodwill by the community.

The three (Walgett, Lightning Ridge and Collarenebri Disability Reference Committees, consisting of community members, and sector workers and supporters played an important role in the development of this Plan. Committee members were involved in a formal review process of the draft Plan and provided feedback and recommendations.

Policy and Legislative Framework

The Walgett Shire DIAP will work towards supporting the above flow chart at an "on the ground" level across the Walgett Shire. The actions set out and identified within the Walgett Shire DIAP will align with our current suite of policies and plans underpinned by Councils overarching Community Strategic Plan 2017-2027.

2. Legislation and Policy

International

The United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities

The United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities protects the rights of all people with a disability around the world. Australia was one of the first countries to sign the Convention when it was ratified in 2008. The convention acknowledges that people with disability have the same human rights as those without disability.

This commits participating governments to ensure these rights can be exercised and that barriers are removed.

The United Nations Convention of the Rights of Persons with Disabilities supports the social model of disability.

This recognises that attitudes, practices and structures are disabling and can create barriers to people with disability from enjoying economic participation, social inclusion and equality which are not an inevitable outcome of their disability.

The Convention is guided by the following principles:

- respect for inherent dignity, individual autonomy including the freedom to make one's own choices and independence of persons;
- non-discrimination;
- full and effective participation and inclusion in society;
- respect for difference and acceptance of persons with disabilities as part of human diversity and humanity;
- equality of opportunity;
- Accessibility;
- equality between men and women;
- Respect for the evolving capacities of children with disabilities and respect for the right of children with disabilities to preserve their identities.

National

National Disability Strategy 2010-2020

The National Disability Strategy 2010-2020, developed in partnership by the Commonwealth, State, Territory and Local Governments, sets out a national plan for improving life for Australians with disability, their families and carers, to support the commitment made to the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities

Actions in the Implementation Plan that involve councils include improving Web Content accessibility, access to infrastructure, recreation, employment and community participation.

National Disability Insurance Scheme

The National Disability Insurance Scheme is a major reform that will deliver a national system of disability support focused on the individual needs and choices of people with disability. The National Disability Insurance Scheme gives participants more choice and control over how, when and where supports are provided.

State Disability Inclusion Act 2014 (NSW)

The Disability Inclusion Act (2014) acknowledges human rights; promoting the independence and social and economic inclusion of people with disability.

The Act requires NSW government departments, local councils and some other public authorities to develop and implement a Disability Inclusion Action Plan.

The plan must be consistent with the State Disability Inclusion Plan and include strategies to increase access and participation.

Local

Walgett Shire Council Community Strategic Plan 2017-2027 was created by the community and provides a long term vision for our Shire. The Community Strategic Plan informs Council's Delivery Program and Operational Plan, which set out Council's role in achieving the community's vision. Other Council plans and documents relevant to the Disability Inclusion Action Plan include:

Council is currently in the final stages of its disability access ramp at the Walgett Library and VIC.

Linking plans / integrating services and delivery to community

It is essential that Councils policies and plans link with, and integrate for the best outcomes for community, stakeholders and residents across the Shire.

During the development phase of the Disability Inclusion Action Plan the consultations with community members at events, forums and in place focused on how this Action Plan links with other Council strategies, plans and policies, all of which are underpinned by Councils Community Strategic Plan. It was noted that the current Aboriginal Reconciliation Plan 2007-2010 and the Youth Strategy 2010-2014 are currently under review and a process of consultation is underway with community and stakeholders to complete the reviews in the 2017-18 financial year. This was taken into consideration when developing this DIAP with participants and actions aligning with existing plans where actions focused on access and inclusion issues and information sharing for all groups of people and residents of the Walgett Shire.

Premises Standards

The national Disability (Access to Premises — Buildings) Standards 2010 (Premises Standards) came into effect on 1 May 2011. The Premises Standards help to improve the accessibility and safety of new and upgraded buildings, and are important in ‘future-proofing’ the built environment. Accessible buildings meet future needs as well as current expectations of equity and fairness. The Premises Standards are made under the Commonwealth Disability Discrimination Act 1992. They list the buildings that must comply, who is responsible for compliance, exemptions from compliance, and an Access Code of technical building standards.

Areas that do not need to be accessible

Part D3.4 of the Access Code and the BCA specify the areas that are not required to be accessible:

- a) an area where access would be inappropriate because of the particular purpose for which the area is used
- b) an area that would pose a health or safety risk for people with a disability
- c) any path of travel providing access only to an area exempted by this clause.

These areas could include rigging lofts, waste containment areas, foundry floors, loading docks, fire lookouts, plant and equipment rooms and other similar areas. Identifying such areas should be on a case-by-case basis. Note: only accredited Building Certifiers whom are approving a project can grant an exemption under this part of the BCA.

Companion Animals Act 1998, Assistance animals

The federal Disability Discrimination Act (1992) and the NSW Companion Animals Act (1998) states:

- A person with a disability is entitled to be accompanied by an assistance animal being used bona fide by the person to assist the person, into or onto any building or place open to or used by the public or on any public transport
- An occupier or person in charge or control of a building or place open to or used by the public or a person in charge or control of any public transport must not, without reasonable cause, refuse to permit a person to take an assistance animal into or onto, or while accompanied by an assistance animal to enter or be in or on, that building or place or public transport if the person has a disability and is using the animal bona fide to assist him or her.
- An occupier or person in charge or control of a building or place open to or used by the public or a person in charge or control of any public transport must not impose a charge on or in respect of a person with a disability who is accompanied by an assistance animal used bona fide by the person to assist him or her and who is taking the animal into or onto, or is entering or is in or on, that building or place or public transport, unless the charge would have been imposed respect of that person if the person had not been accompanied by the animal.

3. Shire Profile and Demographic

Walgett Shire Local Government Area is located in the far north west of New South Wales and covers an area of 22,007 square kilometers. Walgett Shire borders with Queensland to the north, Moree Plains and Narrabri Councils to the east, Coonamble to the south and Brewarrina to the west.

The Shire is located on Gamilaroi country in the southern and eastern sector and to the north is on Yuwaalaraay country.

Acknowledgement of the traditional occupiers of the land is displayed on signs along main roads entering into the Walgett Shire. The Shire is geographically on the productive black-soil plains of New South Wales, part of which is in the Central Division and part in the Western Division.

The North and North West of the Shire is opal bearing country, which is home to NSW state gemstone, the Black Opal.

Walgett Shire comprises thirteen towns, villages and hamlets spread throughout the Shire and the preserved opal fields of Grawin, Glengarry and Sheepyards.

Each community has its own special identity.

Defining a disability:

The Disability Inclusion Act 2014 (DIA) defines disability as:

“The long-term physical, mental, intellectual or sensory impairment which in interaction with various barriers may hinder the full and effective participation in society on an equal basis with others.”

4. Disability snapshot in Walgett Shire

Information about disability in Walgett Shire is based on Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) Census data.

The below data was taken from the ABS website and relates to 2012

Description	2010	2011	2012
Disability Estimates - Persons with a disability living in private dwellings (no.)			1643
Disability Estimates - Persons with a disability living in private dwellings (%)			24.4

Other data from the Australian Bureau of Statistics:

Description	2011	2012	2013	2014
Selected Government Pensions and Allowances - Carer Payment (no.)	179	195	211	232
Selected Government Pensions and Allowances - Disability Support Pension (no.)	692	716	723	706

The Shire is home to a diverse population of residents, a high Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders representation and also a significant number of people from culturally and diverse backgrounds and we know that we have people in these groups with disabilities and access and inclusion also affects their daily life.

The Committee during the consultation phase, consulted with many Aboriginal and CALD groups ensuring they were inclusive in the development process and ultimately represented in the final DIAP.

Information from the Australian Bureau of Statistic indicates:

- 1643 people are living with a disability in private dwellings within the Walgett Shire; this represents 24.4% of the total population.
- According to the ABS, 232 people were receiving a Carer Payment Benefit in 2014, an increase of 53 people from 2011. This payment is made to people who personally provide constant care, in the home, to someone with a severe disability, medical condition, or who is frail aged.
- 706 people living within the Walgett Shire LGA were receiving a Disability Support Pension in 2014. The Disability Support Pension is provided to people who have a physical, intellectual or psychiatric condition that stops them from working or people who are permanently blind.

What we are doing:

Council research's and considers the development of a range of options when conducting or implementing community programs relating to inclusiveness and access for people with disabilities.

Council's community development team have, over many years formed long term relationships with many service providers, employment organisations and care services for people with disabilities.

Council is well placed to work with all groups across our Shire and consider consultation as a prerequisite when access and inclusiveness issues are discussed and identified. Council's community development team actively engage, recognise, and acknowledge the significant events targeting people with disabilities and their carers throughout the calendar year. Council includes all aspects of celebration, acknowledgement and education surrounding access and inclusion barriers and strengths to provide the broader community with information in a bid to create an improved understanding across community of issues that affect people with disabilities and provide opportunities and raise awareness of inclusion of people with disabilities. Some examples include:

- Provided experience through the School 2 Work program for placements for high school students with disability.
- Celebrate International Day of People with Disabilities as an annual event.
- Celebrate and recognise Carers Week throughout three larger communities
- Installed an accessible toilet Gray Park Walgett improving access

- Installed adaptive technology (magnifying equipment) in Walgett Library.
- Enforcing ALL requirements in building codes to new and renovated additions to buildings and public amenities
- Establish reference groups for Access and Inclusiveness across the community
- Encouraging and promoting inclusion for all at Council functions and events across the Shire

Programmed future projects across our Shire

- Construction of disabled toilet facility in Come by Chance
- Construction of a disabled toilet at Grawin

5. Community Consultation

"Community engagement is about involving through consultation, the community in decision making processes, which is critical in the successful development of acceptable policies and decisions in government, the private sector and the community."

In the development of the Plan Council staff spoke to many people across the three larger communities.

- ✓ Community service and health workers, people with a disability and their careers and the broader community participated in surveys and conversations informing the final Plan.
- ✓ Pop ups at open services day events
- ✓ Council made survey boxes for people to complete "in place" surveys at the libraries, Council depots and a selection of "hot spots" as identified by community sector workers
- ✓ An extensive media campaign was driven across the Shire informing residents of the Shire of Councils undertaking of the DIAP.
- ✓ Council's staff attended community functions, CDAT meetings and youth events in a bid to have as much input from community.
- ✓ Staff attended and promoted DIAP at NDIS community information sessions

What people told us:

The surveys were completed by 211 people across the Shire through a in a range of methods including hard copy (107) , Survey Monkey- online (58) and in place at community events (46).

Community responses highlighted the importance of being involved in the local community and having access to appropriate services and recreational social and educational opportunities.

It was interesting to note that many survey participants noted and shared positive feedback for Council services and programs, highlighting the community engagement and development as active and making inroads to building social capital and capacity.

In place community consultation at Collarenebri with a community services day

Participants also were forthcoming with identifying issues around access and the general streetscape in relation to footpaths and mobility in terms of navigating the built environment.

People with a disability told us what would make a difference to their community participation. We also heard from carers and family and friends of people with a disability together with community service and health workers.

Council's partnerships with service providers at local and state levels are essential in addressing the needs of our peoples with disabilities.

1. Positive attitudes and behaviour

Typically the negative attitudes and stereotyping of people with a disability cause barriers in many situations and places. Many people make assumptions based on what they think people with a disability can and cannot do, should or should not do. Many people feel uncomfortable talking to disabled people and people tend to think of disabled people as not as productive as everyone else.

Many believe that disabled people face prejudice and many people have experienced attitudes or behaviours where other people expected less of them because of their disability and in many cases because they weren't sure how to communicate with them.

Attitudes to people with a disability should not be determined by fear or ignorance and Council can play a role in promoting positive community behaviour.

From the research and community consultation processes feedback from community is positive around recognising and implementing process to engage and change the need for positive attitudes and behaviours in relation to Disabilities and Inclusion throughout the Shire.

Common themes and suggestions for change included:

- Increase promotion of National and localised programs and events recognising the role people with disabilities play in society
- Increase visibility of people with a disability in Council and community publications.
- More education for the community about the broad range of disabilities.
- Higher awareness among businesses about the value of employing people with a disability.

2. Liveable communities

As recognised as a common theme in relation to survey respondents was the accessibility issues for people with a disability. Many commented and highlighted as a main concern in relation to the walkways, footpaths and mobility concerns across the three major communities within the Walgett Shire Walgett, Lightning Ridge and Collarenebri along with the villages within the Local Government Area.

It is important that all people can move about easily to access facilities and services and participate in community life. Survey respondents emphasised the need to adjust and model the existing physical environment for inclusiveness and accessibility

Pedestrian access featured highly with calls for more footpaths that are wider and better maintained and monitored regularly due to the constant ground movement in communities with black soil earth.

Inclusion of seating in strategic areas was also raised by many and along primary routes, for aged/people with mobility issues was raised on a number of occasions. Improving the access into shops for mobility aid users was raised along with improved street lighting, and access ramps to Library in Walgett.

Common themes and suggestions for change included:

- Work towards ensuring Council facilities is physically accessible.
 - Playgrounds include accessible equipment.
- Footpaths are level and in good order and regularly maintained
 - Ensure safe pedestrian crossings in all townships
 - More accessible and well maintained public toilets.
 - Ensure all pool hoists are operational.
- Provide seating in Main Streets in larger communities

3. Employment

Meaningful employment contributes to independence and feelings of self-worth. Opportunities to work in paid and volunteer roles are important. Local employment, especially for school leavers, is important to the long term future of the community.

Common themes and suggestions for change included:

- Educate employers on the value of employing people with a disability.
- Provide more opportunities for meaningful employment for people with a disability.
 - Provide accessible work places and volunteer opportunities.
- Ensure accessible recruitment practices - simple forms and language.

4. Service systems and processes

Information sharing and keeping people updated with Council Information is important to residents and those living within the Shire. As evidenced by the survey results Council's hard copy mail out newsletter is regarded as the best form of communication.

Feedback from survey indicates our website may be improved as many expressed issues with manoeuvring around the website. It was also identified within the survey that large print and magnifying resources and tools be introduced into our Library services across the Local Government Area

Common themes and suggestions for change included:

- Continuing with the current quarterly newsletter as this was identified as the most acceptable form for information sharing across the Shire
- Increase our capacity to provide accessible services to support access
- Complete an asset mapping and access guide to improve systems and process in relation to access and inclusion

*Consulting with community is essential to a relevant, realistic
Disability Inclusion Action Plan*

8. Risk management and assessments

Within all works, functions and programs Walgett Shire Council undertake and implement a risk assessment and generally an evaluation following the process. In order to achieve a sound understanding of works to be carried out/ programs to be undertaken/ initiatives to be implemented.

Risk factors that are relevant to the public, Council and the environment.
