247 Development involving the erection of a dwelling-house with an estimated construction cost of $100,000 or less

A maximum fee of $455 is payable for development involving the erection of a dwelling-house with an estimated cost of construction of $100,000 or

248 Residential flat development

An additional fee, not exceeding $760, is payable for development which is required to be referred to a design review panel under State.

249 Development involving the subdivision of land

The maximum fee payable for development involving the subdivision of land is calculated as follows:

(a) Subdivision (other than strata subdivision):

(i) Involving the opening of a public road, $665 plus $65 for each additional lot created by the subdivision, or

(ii) Not involving the opening of a public road, $350 plus $53 for each additional lot created by the subdivision,

(b) Strata subdivision, $330 plus $65 for each additional lot created by the subdivision.

Note. For example, a plan of subdivision that provides for 5 lots over land that has previously comprised 2 lots will result in the creation of 3

250 Development not involving the erection of a building, the carrying out of a work, the subdivision of land or the demolition of a building or work

A maximum fee of $285 is payable for development that does not involve the erection of a building, the carrying out of a work, the subdivision of land or the demolition of a building or work.

251 Designated development

In addition to any other fees payable under this Division, a maximum fee of $920 is payable for designated development.

252 What additional fees are payable for development that requires advertising?

(1) In addition to any other fees payable under this Division, a consent authority may charge up to the following maximum fees for the giving of the

(a) $2,220, in the case of designated development,

(b) $1,105, in the case of advertised development,

(c) $1,105, in the case of prohibited development,

(d) $1,105, in the case of development for which an environmental planning instrument or development control plan requires notice to be given

(2) The consent authority must refund so much of the fee paid under this clause as is not spent in giving the notice.

252A What additional fees are payable for development that requires concurrence?

(1) An additional processing fee up to a maximum of $140, plus a concurrence fee for payment to each concurrence authority, are payable in respect

(2) The consent authority must forward each concurrence fee to the concurrence authority concerned at the same time at which it forwards a copy of

(3) The concurrence fee for a development application is not payable:

(a) to any concurrence authority whose concurrence may be assumed in accordance with clause 64, or

(b) to any concurrence authority that has notified the consent authority in writing that payment of the fee is waived, whether generally, in

(3A) A concurrence authority may repay to the consent authority the whole or any part of a concurrence fee paid to it under this clause, in which case

(4) The additional processing fee is not payable:

(a) for any application in respect of which concurrence may be assumed in accordance with clause 64 for all of the concurrence authorities

(b) for any application made before 1 July 2002.

(5) For the purposes of this clause, the concurrence fee payable to a concurrence authority for a development application is $320 or such lesser amount as is notified to the consent authority in writing by the concurrence authority, whether generally, in relation to that application or in relation to a class of development applications to which that application belongs.

253 What additional fees are payable for integrated development?

(1) An additional processing fee up to a maximum of $140, plus an approval fee for payment to each approval body, are payable in respect of an application for integrated development.

(2) The consent authority must forward each approval fee to the approval body concerned at the same time at which it forwards a copy of the development application to the approval body under clause 66.

(2A) The approval fee for a development application is not payable to any approval body that has notified the consent authority in writing that payment of the fee is waived, whether generally, in relation to that application or in relation to a class of development applications to which that application belongs.

(2B) An approval body may repay to the consent authority the whole or any part of an approval fee paid to it under this clause, in which case the consent authority must remit the amount repaid to the applicant.

(3) The additional processing fee is payable in respect only of applications made on or after 1 July 2002.

(4) For the purposes of this clause, the approval fee payable to an approval body for a development application is $320 or such lesser amount as is notified to the consent authority in writing by the approval body, whether generally, in relation to that application or in relation to a class of development applications to which that application belongs.

254 What if two or more fees are applicable to a single development application?

If two or more fees are applicable to a single development application (such as an application to subdivide land and erect a building on one or more lots created by the subdivision), the maximum fee payable for the development is the sum of those fees.

255 How is a fee based on estimated cost determined?

(1) In determining the fee for development involving the erection of a building, the consent authority must make its determination by reference to a genuine estimate of:

- (a) the costs associated with the construction of the building, and
- (b) the costs associated with the preparation of the building for the purpose for which it is to be used (such as the costs of installing plant, fittings, fixtures and equipment).

(1A) In determining the fee for development involving the carrying out of a work, the consent authority must make its determination by reference to a genuine estimate of the construction costs of the work.

(1B) In determining the fee for development involving the demolition of a building or work, the consent authority must make its determination by reference to a genuine estimate of the costs of demolition.

(2) The estimate must, unless the consent authority is satisfied that the estimated cost indicated in the development application is neither genuine nor accurate, be the estimate so indicated.

256 Determination of fees after development applications have been made

(1) The determination of a fee to accompany a development application must be made before, or within 14 days after, the application is lodged with the consent authority.

(2) A determination made after the lodging of a development application has no effect until notice of the determination is given to the applicant.

(3) A consent authority may refuse to consider a development application for which a fee has been duly determined and notified to the applicant but remains unpaid.

256A Proportion of development application fees to be remitted to Director-General

(1) For each development application lodged with a consent authority for development referred to in clause 246 (1) having an estimated cost exceeding $50,000, an amount calculated as follows is to be set aside for payment to the Director-General for the services referred to in clause 245AA (2) (g), (h) and (i):

$$P = \frac{0.64 \times E}{1,000} - 5$$

where:

(1A) Such part of the amount referred to in subclause (1) as is not directed by the Minister to be paid into the Building Professionals Board Fund under section 105 (6) of the Act is to be applied by the Director-General to the services referred to in clause 245AA (2) (g) and (h).

(2) On or before the 14th day of each month, the consent authority must forward to the Director-General the total amount set aside under subclause (1) in relation to the development applications lodged with it during the previous month, together with a report in relation to those applications.

(3) The report referred to in subclause (2) must contain such information, and be prepared in such form, as the Director-General may determine.

256B Staged development applications

The maximum fee payable for a staged development application in relation to a site, and for any subsequent development application for any part of the site, is the maximum fee that would be payable as if a single development application only was required for all the development on the site.
